DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. The species are as follows: Species A (embodiments of fig. 1 and 2), species B (embodiments of figs. 3 and 4), species C (embodiments of fig. 5), species D (embodiments of fig. 6), species E (embodiments of fig. 7), and species F (embodiments of fig. 8).

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the common technical feature between the species is a supply unit for electric power and/or water derived from renewable energies comprising a box type profile frame, characterized in that the box sides in the plane of the upper side of the box form operable solar panels and the cross- shaped arrangement of the solar panels, so formed, can tilt about a horizontal axis on the profile frame . This element cannot be a special technical feature under PCT rule 13.2 because the element is shown in the prior art. US 4421943 to WITHJACK discloses a supply unit for power from renewable energy sources, consisting of a box-shaped frame (12) constructed from flat profiles. The sides of the box are formed from solar panels (10,18) which can be folded open into the plane of the top side of the box, forming a cruciform solar panel configuration. Furthermore, at least the 4 contiguous central panels can be tilted about a horizontal axis (15) on the profile frame.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
